

NORTHERN RAILROAD

A Modern Day Classic! Designed after "The Polar Express"
Our Newest & Most Popular Design

Northern Railroad

This Custom Design was Inspired by The Pere Marquette the train that Influenced the design of the Modern Day Holiday Classic Book & Feature Film "The Polar Express".

Fun Fact : The Pere Marquette was used in WWII to deliver American Steel to the Factories in Detroit.

Chris Van Allsburg, is the author / illustrator of "The Polar Express", the 1985 children's book. He grew up in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and a child attended every home football game at Michigan State, which happened to be where the Pere Marquette was on display. He recalls playing on this Train as a child.
