

WESTERN TRAIN
Adventure Awaits!

C.P. HUNTINGTON

Designed After the Southern Pacific Number One
- By the Creators of The 1st Electrified C.P. Huntington

C.P. Huntington

The C.P. Huntington is a 24" Gauge replica of the Original 1863 Southern Pacific Number One Locomotive located at the California State Railroad Museum & is the Only Surviving example of a 4-2-4 locomotive in the US.

Also Fabled as "The Little Engine that Could"

This Historic Train was Featured in the Motion Picture Films of it's day and was Shown Off at many Ribbon Cutting Ceremonies at New Train Stations Around the Country, Truly the Center Piece of the Train Industry during it's Great Rise.

Ride Specs.

- Holds up to 120 Guests
- Available in Electric
- Power House: 100 hp John Deere Turbo Diesel
- Transmission: Eaton Hydrostatic Drive system
- Brakes: Disc Brake system
- Instrumentation: 12v Digital Gauges
- Track Curve Radius: 50' acceptable / 80' recommended
- Weight: 6,250 lbs.
- Track Gauge: 24"
- Max Ride Speed: 11 mph
- Recommended Max Grade: 3%

WESTERN TRAIN
Adventure Awaits!